

Singtam residents sensitized on human rights

SE Report

GANGTOK, April 6: The Sikkim State Human Rights Commission (SSHRC) organized an awareness programme on human rights at Singtam community hall, east district on Wednesday.

SSHRC chairman former Chief Justice N.K. Jain, former judge Justice A.P. Subba, Sikkim Police ADGP (law and order) Akshay Sachdeva and Singtam nagar panchayat president Sawan Kumar Pradhan were present on the occasion, a press release informs.

The SHRC chairperson informed that the programme was organized to aware people about their human rights. He observed that all natural rights are human rights which a person has to get since his birth. He also delved on the provisions of National Food Security Act, 2013 and different welfare schemes of the Central and State governments.

Justice A.P. Subba in his address elaborated about how human rights came into existence.

ADGP Akshay Sachdeva elaborated on duties of the police in protecting human rights of common people. Rangpo SDM also briefed on human rights in his address.

